Dear Sanjaya,

Colombo International Tea Convention 2024

Congratulations on a very successful and magnificent convention last week. I know it took meticulous planning and commitment to execute the event professionally. This success is a true testament to your dedication and determination.

It really was a successful blend of content and speakers which provided an opportunity for participants to acquire knowledge and observe the progress the tea industry has made over the past few years.

The phenomenal success of the charity auction which raised a total sum of Rs. 46.25 million was indeed remarkable. Your commitment to making a difference is genuinely inspiring.

Please also convey my appreciation and congratulations to the committee for the amazing team work towards an extraordinary convention. This is a testament towards collective talents and commitment to accomplish great things.

Congratulations once again!!

Yours sincerely
